

TWO TRUST CO.'S TO TRY STRENGTH

Financial Battle Impending on Shipping Trust Reorganization.

PLAN TO DISPENSE WITH ASSESSMENT

Minority Stockholders Regard Present Situation as Partial Victory, but Will Fight On.

Information obtained yesterday following an announcement by Otto T. Barnard, president of the New York Trust Company and chairman of the reorganization committee of the International Mercantile Marine Company, that the reorganization plan had been declared operative with the elimination of the $2.50 a share assessment originally provided for, promises an interesting financial battle. On the one side will be lined up the New York Trust Company, on the other the Central Trust Company, of which James N. Wallace is president.
